Critical Intelligence Problems Committee

2 August 1982

MEMORANDUM FOR: Walter Elder
Executive Secretary, NFIB

FROM:

Chairman, CIPC

25X1

SUBJECT: Use of Contract Employees

REFERENCE: Memorandum from you to Committee Chairmen,
29 July 1982

1. The CIPC does not require a standing committee and therefore is not concerned with the problem noted.

2. If the CIPC were to face this issue, my position would be that contract employees might well serve as "expert consultants" with the appropriate clearances maintained over some specific time frame but could not serve as a member to a DCI Committee.
